Greta is a 16-year-old girl from Catania, Sicily. She lives with her mom and older brother. Her mom is her best friend and she is very close with her father and brother. Her brother is a role model for her and she values his guidance and advice. Greta describes herself as cheerful, sunny and social. She loves to stay active and enjoys connecting with people. Determination is one of her biggest strengths. She believes strongly about working on her weaknesses and using them as opportunities to grow. Greta enjoys relaxing and having free time on the weekends to be with friends. Sundays are reserved for family, as she will often have lunch with her Grandmother. This is a special time to connect with her. Greta loves to learn and is considering Architecture as a possible future career path.

Her teachers describe Greta as responsible, respectful, dynamic and committed to her work. She has the ability to learn quickly and excels in a team environment. She values other's opinions and accepts their differences. Greta has a positive vision of the future and believes in her own abilities. She often seeks new experiences and knowledge. They know Greta will be very successful as an exchange student because she is open-minded, she can adapt to change and is determined to achieve her goals.

Greta is very excited for the opportunity to study in the US and meet new people. She looks forward to immersing herself in a new culture. This will allow her to grow both socially and personally. Greta also wants to share her culture with new people. She hopes to make lasting memories, build meaningful friendships and learn from the people she meets along the way.
